Minutes:

● Discussed:

BAC Update:

- BAC involvement - meetings 2 hours each Friday with additional homework
- Total DPS Budget = 1.139B
- BAC received 250+ ideas from the community and district
- Ideas were placed into three “tiers” in order to make ratings and decisions
- 2nd/3rd week is target for BAC solution
- Discussion: why is BAC different from DAC’s Budget Subcommittee?
- Member comment: BAC is has more diverse membership than DAC

Guest - Margaret Bobb presentation:

- 1860 Lincoln org charts - last year vs. this year
  - Suggested: sliding scale of salary cuts would “demonstrate equity”
  - People from the central office who left and went to work in schools took a pay cut. 94 people at central office who stayed saw a pay increase.

Performance Subcommittee update:

- Committee desires more community planning for UIP and collaborate with Denver Plan

BoE Member in Attendance - Angela Cobian:

- Discussed “Edunomics” certification in school finance
- BAC idea formation was “pre-Covid” and does not duplicate DAC
- Covid budget is viewed as “acute issue”

Other:

- 41 applications received for 2020-21 DAC membership
